

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

- How will I know that the library has the journal I want?

Use EBSCO A to Z, the search page periodical index/organizer. Go to the list of online databases and click on the link for the journal you want.

- How can I borrow books from the library?

As an off-campus student, it is quite unsafe for the library to request for a pickup of books from articles by you. You can request for a pickup of books from articles by you.

- How can I get the full text of journal citation I got from online database?

You may check other databases for the full text of works for journals, sometimes one database is available for the full text of works for journals, sometimes one database is available for the full text of works for journals.

- Can alumni use library resources and facilities?

Alumni has the privilege of using the library, with a registered student card, however, borrowing of books is not allowed.

- How can I fix the missing icons and words in the OPAC?

Make sure that your web browser's language is setup to English. You can change the language by going to the browser's settings.