EBSCO DATABASE TUTORIAL
Go to

http://library.aiias.edu
1. Click E-Resources.
2. Click General Databases.
3. Choose and click any EBSCO database from the listing. The library has Academic Source Premiere, and ATLA Religion/ATLA Serials.
4. To login, use your AIIAS username and password.
5. Type your search word in the search box and then click Search. Let us try Inductive preaching as an example.
6. Notice the number of results from this search. You can narrow down the results by source types. You can also limit your results by full text, abstract available and scholarly journal.
7. In this search, there are seven articles with full text. To view the full content of the article, click PDF Full Text or HTML Full Text. To view the citation, click on the title of the article.
8. To cite the article, click first on its title...
And then, click Cite this button.
9. Now, choose the citation format being used in your school. Copy and paste the citation in your reference list.
10. For more information and searching techniques, just click the Help link.
Congratulations!

For inquiries, send an e-mail to the librarians at ask.a.librarian@aiias.edu or contact us at local 401 and 403.