

FIND BOOKS

To find books that are in the Leslie Hardinge Library, search the library catalog. For help in searching the catalog, click here.

To search for online books, use the links below:

- Google Book Search . Search for a particular book, or search for books on a topic. For some books, you can choose “Full View” and read or download the entire contents. For other books, you may have a “Limited Preview” of selected pages, or only the “Table of Contents.”

- Digital Book Index provides access to the full text of more than 130,000 online books from nearly 2,000 providers. You have free access to about 90,000 of them.

- Online Books Page is hosted by the University of Pennsylvania Libraries. This database facilitates access to books that are freely readable over the Internet. It aims to encourage the development of such online books, for the benefit and edification of all.

